IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
FORT WORTH DIVISION

FLEXIBLE INNOVATIONS LTD.,
A Texas Limited Partnership,

Plaintiff,

v.

IDEAMAX, EUGENE LEE, and AEKYUNG
LEE,

Defendant

Case No.: 4:12-CV-00856-A

DEFENDANTS' STATEMENT OF
COMPLIANCE WITH COURT'S ORDER
AND OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF'S
REPORT RE NONCOMPLIANCE WITH
NOTICE OF STEPS TO TAKE TO COMPLY WITH COURT'S ORDERS

I

COMPLIANCE

Defendants Ideamax, Eugene Lee and Aekyung Lee (collectively "Defendants") have complied, or have substantially complied with the "Order of Contempt" as filed on October 9, 2013. Specifically, the following actions have been taken regarding this compliance:

1. Pursuant to Order of Contempt (a): Action taken: Defendants removed the phrase "Trust the original genuinely United States Patented manufacturer for over 10 years!" from its website at www.microclean.net; see EXHIBIT A.
2. Pursuant to Order of Contempt (b): Action taken: Defendants removed the phrase "OFFICIAL UNITED STATES PATENTED PRODUCT" in conjunction with Defendants' microfiber screen wipe products from its website at www.microclean.net; see EXHIBIT A.
3. Pursuant to Order of Contempt (c): Action taken: Defendants removed the phrase "Being the patented manufacturer" in conjunction with Defendants' microfiber screen wipe products by removing the phrase on the webpage from its website at www.microclean.net; see EXHIBIT B.

4. Pursuant to Order of Contempt filed October 9, 2013 (d): Action taken:

Defendants removed the mark “digipad” ” in conjunction with Defendants’ microfiber screen wipe products from its facebook page; see screenshot of Defendants’ Facebook page on 11/1/13 attached hereto as EXHIBIT C.

5. Pursuant to Order of Contempt filed October 9, 2013 (e): Action taken:

Defendants removed the mark “digistand” ” in conjunction with Lee’s microfiber screen wipe products from its facebook page; see screenshot of Defendants’ Facebook page on 11/1/13 attached hereto as EXHIBIT C.

II

PLAINTIFF EXCEEDS SCOPE OF COURT ORDERS

6. Plaintiff argues in its Report, filed November 1, 2013, that all of its “items in the Notice come within the constraints of the “Agreed Order” (item 11, page 2 of 6) and then cites Exhibit “11” of its Notice, presumably as an example of noncompliance by Defendants.

7. With respect to Exhibit “11” of its Notice, Defendants have complied with the Agreed Order by eliminating the terms “Digipad” and Digistand” from its “Products”. See screenshot of Defendants’ Facebook page on 11/1/13 attached hereto as EXHIBIT C, which shows that these terms have been completely removed.

8. With respect to Exhibit “10” of its Notice (referred to as Exhibit “C” in Plaintiff’s Report), Defendants have complied with the Agreed Order by eliminating the verbiage “Ideamax holds the official product patent on Microclean microfiber screen cleaners.” See screenshot of Defendants’ Facebook page on 11/1/13 attached hereto as EXHIBIT C, which shows that this phrase has been completely removed. This screenshot contradicts Plaintiff’s assertion in its Report on page 2 of 6; item 8, that Defendants have failed to fully comply with the Agreed Order.

- 1 9. With respect to Exhibit "1" of Plaintiff's Report (referring to "E-Wallet"), the 2 small patent logo on the right side of the advertisement is there only to indicate
3 a new patent pending application relating to the E-Wallet, and has virtually
4 nothing to do with any cleaning qualities of an E-Wallet. Defendants are 5 willing to stipulate, however, to move the "patent (pending)" logo closer to the 6 E-Wallet name if the Court deems it necessary.
- 7 10. Defendants do not disagree that they must comply with all aspects of the 8 Agreed Order. Defendants, in fact, believe that they have already complied
9 with all aspects of the Agreed Order. Defendants respectfully contend,
10 however, that full compliance should not include relinquishing their own rights
11 under U.S. Patent No. 6,613,382, which relates to an adhesive gel enabling 12 multi-use products to adhere to matte finished phones, devices and cases.
- 13 11. It appears that the common thread to all of Plaintiff's points in items "a"
14 through "i" of its Report (see pages 3 to 5) refer to inferences that could be 15 made linking Defendants' patent references for adhesive qualities to the 16 cleaning qualities of its product by virtue of Defendants' product name.
17 Defendants believe that this connection is an unfair representation of its 18 advertising content, as well as of its intentions.
- 19 12. Defendants' product, "MicroClean", has two parts to it- a microfiber cleaning
20 cloth, and an adhesive gel. The product is a mobile microfiber adhesive screen
21 cleaner for smart phones, iphones, glasses and cameras, and its name is a
22 necessary part of its advertising.
- 23 13. An important selling point of Defendant's "MicroClean" product is its unique
24 ability to adhere to various electronic devices. This feature is fully protected
25 under Defendants' patent (U.S. Patent No. 6,613,382), and is mentioned in the 26 advertisements only in connection with its adhesive qualities. There are no
27 representations made, directly or indirectly, to any cleaning aspects or qualities
28 in connection with Defendants' patent. The mere fact that the "MicroClean"

1 name and the patented feature for adhesive qualities are made in the same
2 advertisement does not imply, and should not imply that one is connected to
3 the other. EXHIBIT D attached hereto shows that these references are in
4 connection with the adhesive gel aspect only, since Defendants have
5 previously stipulated not to relate its patent to its cleaning qualities or 6 characteristics.

7 14. Defendants believe that Plaintiff's assertions of contempt are nothing but wild
8 and reckless allegations which clearly overreach the scope of the Agreed
9 Order. Judge John McBryde has already denied these extra requests by 10 Plaintiff in previous hearings and has ordered Defendants to comply with six 11 specific items, which Defendants believe they are in full compliance with.

12 15. Defendants do not agree to the appointment of a special prosecutor since 13 Defendants have acted in good faith in complying with all Court Orders. If the 14 Court determines that Defendants need to take further action in addition to 15 actions they have already taken, however, Defendants will comply with any 16 decision of the Court forthwith.

17
18 Respectfully submitted,

19

MAKE YOUR VISION COME TO LIFE!

In a world where brand name recognition is prominent in all realms of society, there are few electronics accessories that can catch the attention of the public eye! With the constantly evolving technological advances in the electronics industry, the market trends for electronics accessories have equally expanded.

With touch screen and digital devices on the rise, IdeaMax has raised the bar by developing the ultimate tools to bring your business marketing to the next level!

We at IdeaMax have perfected a revolutionary and unique line of customizable products that will not only decorate, protect, and enhance your mobile and stationary devices, but are also utilized as portable screen cleaning mouse pads, portable screen cleaning device stands, and portable ultra-sensitive stylus's.

Our digital printing technology enables us to create a custom imprint of your design using full color digital processing in the highest print quality, and the best production time and methods available to the industry, on both our products and packaging. This fact allows us to personally customize every order to best suit the business needs of our clients.

If you look at it from this point of view, the opportunities are endless in terms of target markets in the promotional, incentive, and marketing industries! Our goal at IdeaMax as a manufacturer is to provide the highest quality products, best customer service, and quickest production time available to the industry!
